LAST HOURS OF THE PRESIDENT.

Interesting Statements by Eye-Witnesses.

We have already published many accounts of the assassination and the following statements of gentlemen of intelligence and high position deserve to be quoted:

THE FOLLOWING ACCOUNT OF THE ASSASSINATION.

On the night of Friday, April 14, 1865, in company with friends, I went to Ford's theater.

At the theater, I found the doctor at home and dressed, and he at once consented to accompany me.

At the neighborhood of the house, I had difficulty in passing the guard and only succeeded in doing so after a long and painful struggle.

Mr. Johnson further told them that there was no division of the States.

On the 5th of February he made a speech on the Virginia Mission of Peace.

I suppose this heresy for another year not only as being destructive of the existing Government, but as being destructive of the Union.
